

Canadian Paramedical Services Inc would like to formally announce that

Darryl MacDonald, Operations Manager for CPS is heading off on to new ventures overseas with his wife Joanna, starting in the new year of 2010.

Darryl has played an intricate and dynamic role within CPS since the start up 3 years ago. His dedication to the growth and production of this company has been unsurmountable. Thank you Darryl for all your knowledge, expertise and creative input. You are, and remain, highly recognized and appreciated.

Everyone here at CPS Inc wishes you and Joanna all the very best in your new opportunities and we will miss you both greatly.

~ Canadian Paramedical Services team....Especially Alan, Drew and Viv.

~ November 20, 2009

